USS Indianapolis Zoom

Our Zoom meeting for January got off to a rocky start. I had a little problem with Zoom interfacing with Paramount Plus. After a few minutes I got it all figured out. We watch ST VOY episode "Author, Author" and ST TNG episode "Parallels". We had a nice turn out for this Zoom meeting. Thanks to all that made this a fun meeting.

USS Halsey Zoom

Meeting. We had 2 other members, who couldn't log into the meeting. They had trouble with the password. For the most part, it was a good meeting.

The Celebrating went from 7:00 pm to 6:00 am, as we celebrating time zones, talking trek and hearing and humor, thank Hawkeye Haven, inspiring stories from some of the members of the fleet. Here are some screen shots courtesy of Commodore Mike Riley of the USS Indianapolis. Interesting Note the USS Indianapolis crews have attended every Saturday with the Fleet, WOW! Big Thanks To That Crew!!! But I would like to thank each of you that join! If any member has some ideas on how we could make the Fleet Night more exciting contact me at the Office of the Chief of Public Affairs at cpa@sfcq1.com

PRAYER

God, You know my heart better than anyone. There is nothing that I can hide from You. I want to produce good fruit in my life, but I can't do it without You. Please renew my heart so that I might produce fruit for Your kingdom. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Svengoolie

It's that month where we wait in fearful anticipation to see if a furry creature will emerge from its subterranean den and inflict us with a horrible fate — of six more weeks of winter! It's also the month with a special day denoting attacks by a fiendish little winged creature armed with a bow and arrow whose onslaught has been known to change lives in many ways (hey — it's not easy to try to make the groundhog and Cupid seem like characters in one of our horror films)! Fear not, dear viewers — for we have an adorable assortment of terror treats this month to help warm your cold cold hearts! Take a look!
