SFC News

In order to make the meeting accessible to as many members as possible, the Starfleet Command Mid-Year Meeting will be held on Sunday, July 21st at 2:00 pm EDT (1:00 pm CDT) via Zoom. A link for the meeting will be made available as we get closer to the meeting date. Please plan to attend. This is a great opportunity to see members that you may not have met before and find out what the different ships around the Quadrant are involved in. If time allows once the official meeting has ended, the Zoom connection will be left open for general conversation and frivolity.

For those that normally attend InConJunction, there will still be a meeting at the convention, which will be in an Open Forum/Welcome to Starfleet Command format to discuss issues and introduce non-members to our organization. The day & time for this meeting will be announced once it has been scheduled.

On behalf of the Admiralty Board, we look forward to seeing everyone at either and/or both of the upcoming meetings.

Live Long and Prosper

Happy Father's Day

Svengoolie

We have a nice summer assortment with twice the Price, double the Corman, plus danger from multiplying meteor fragments and an aging assassin! We start off with a classic William Castle favorite - famous for his in-theatre presentations with the seating equivalent of joy buzzers - The Tinger! Vincent Price discovers a strange phenomenon that dwells within us all - that is set free by fear! Among the cast is the recently deceased Darryl Hickman, who left a great legacy as an actor. (Unfortunately, we had finished this show just before we got word of his passing.)

We move on to a movie with an even more unusual menace - fragments of a meteor that has collided with Earth - that have the power to infect flesh and grow into towering obelisks of stone that collapse and crush all in their path! It's 1957's The Monolith Monsters, featuring Grant Williams and Lola Albright!

Then, we are especially happy to salute the great Roger Corman, who passed away last month, with one of his classic Edgar Allan Poe stories, starring - of course - Vincent Price! The Pit and the Pendulum, loosely based on the Poe tale, finds a young man heading to a Spanish castle to find out how his sister died - and trying to pry the truth out of her husband - who now finds himself haunted by his dead wife! We will also include a tribute to Mr. Corman and his work.

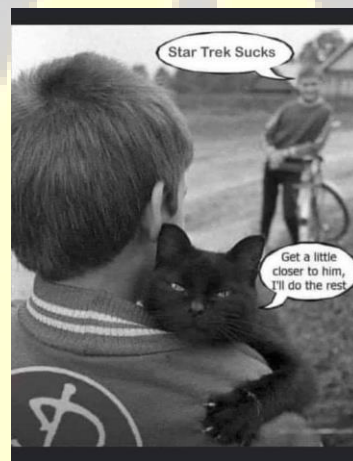

We'll follow that up with some youth obsession that changes the progression of growing old to staying young - with deadly consequences! 1960's Leech Woman takes an unhappy couple on an expedition to the remote jungle - where there is a native ritual that can make an old female young again - by murderous means! Coleen Grey stars as the woman in search of youth at any price - and the cast also features Grant Williams, who we also saw a couple weeks ago in Monolith Monsters.

We wind up the month with a crazy Corman favorite - The Undead - that combines the '50s boom of believing in reincarnation with inexplicable time travel! A researcher finds a way to send a woman of questionable virtue into her past lives - where dealing with witchcraft may prevent her present existence - and only the researcher traversing time to the past can assure her future! Allison Hayes stars as the sultry witch who wants to end this past life of Pamela Duncan.
