D-Day 06/06/1944

D-Day was the name given to the June 6, 1944, invasion of the beaches at Normandy in northern France by troops from the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom and other countries during World War II. France at the time was occupied by the armies of Nazi Germany, and the amphibious assault—codenamed Operation Overlord—landed some 160,000

Allied soldiers on the beaches of Normandy by the end of the day.

Despite their success, some 4,000 Allied troops were killed by German soldiers defending the beaches. At the time, the D-Day invasion was the largest naval, air and land operation in history, and within a few days about 326,000 troops, more than 50,000 vehicles and some 100,000 tons of equipment had landed. By August 1944, all of northern France had been liberated, and in spring of 1945 the Allies had defeated the Germans. Historians often refer to D-Day as the beginning of the end of World War II.

The Zeroah of Israel's Gathering

In Ezekiel 20, it's written, "I will bring you out from the nations and will gather you out of the nations from which you are scattered... with an extended arm, and with fury poured out." This is a prophecy of the regathering of the Jewish people to the land of Israel. The word translated as "arm" is the Hebrew "Zeroah." The Zeroah of the Lord is mentioned elsewhere in Scripture. There's an entire section devoted to revealing it. Isaiah 53 begins with, "Who has believed our report, and to whom has the Zeroah of the Lord been revealed?" It goes on to reveal that the Zeroah of the Lord is Messiah, Yeshua, Jesus. What does it mean? The Jewish people were gathered back from the nations and saved from destruction by the power of God's Zeroah, Messiah. They might not realize it, but Messiah is the Great Gatherer. His heart is to gather us back from exile to the Promised Land. He's still doing it, even with you. Let Him gather you, go with the leading of His Spirit, and your life will be continually led to the Land of Promise.
