SFC News

It is so great to see ships starting to get together in person. Getting together is our core value. Virtual has served us well and can continue to be a great partner, but SFC is about meeting in person. With us coming out of COVID it is time for us to have fellowship with members . Conventions are happening again and this weekend the A-Board is actually meeting together. I am looking forward to seeing the Ships and Starbases at the Mid-Year A-Board Meeting on Saturday. If you are able to comeback, we would be happy to see you!

Thank You

Admiral Rex Wood

Svengoolie

To paraphrase a greeting card being sold by The Three Stooges in the short Boobs in Arms — “Greetings, little shut-in — don’t you weep or sigh — if you’re not out by Christmas, you’ll be out by the 4th of July”! (Yes, I’ve been watching the boys every Saturday right before our show!) That sentiment may well signify that this summer month seems to be a new beginning for all of us who have been fairly shut in by the pandemic, as things begin to open up again and we get closer to normal life at last! Of course, through it all, we’ve always been here to provide you with a weekly dosage of fright films and Sven fun — and that continues with a unique assortment of movies this month.
