SFC News

I really love that we have ships visiting each other's meetings. This is a GREAT Best Practice. I hope to see more of this. Commanders if you're doing a Zoom Meeting or any other Virtual Meeting and you don't mind having some of the Fleet there. Post your meeting so we can all attend. The more the merrier or shall I say the Trekkier (???). Kudos to the Space Station Requiem and the USS Indianapolis!

With the pandemic continuing on, for a long time, we were hoping to see the light at the end of the tunnel — but who knew that light would be that of the sun, bringing us back into the daylight — back into public appearances — and back into the home sweet home of our dungeon studio!?! As I write this, we are preparing to head out to my first visit with fans in over 17 months. We have already returned to our studio, as you might have seen in last night's mail segment — a preview of our return full time this fall. It's a great feeling for our crew and myself to be getting back to more normal production (if you call what we do normal) — so, let's get through one more month, with the wind-up to our summer schedule of movies!
