Svengoolie

Our August selection of movies starts out with some Hammer horror, then goes big with various massive menaces! We start off bringing back a movie we've gotten requests for — Shadow of the Cat — an eerie tale of murder with one feline witness... that appears to be out for revenge! Then, we head south of the border for some angry arachnid action, with Richard Denning and the lovely Mara Corday facing the giant Black Scorpion! We follow that up with an encore from earlier this year that viewers loved: the film some have dubbed “the British King Kong” — as Michael Gough goes ape in getting his simian slave to commit murder- with huge results! And, talk about huge — we wind up the month with the same behemoth that starred in The Amazing Colossal Man — now disfigured and hiding out in Mexico (no giant scorpions accompany him) — but soon heading north to create chaos in the states in War of the Colossal Beast!

About that last film... showing it always brings a bunch of inquiries as to why we don't show The Amazing Colossal Man. The reason is — it is one of a handful of American International films currently out of distribution, with the owner unwilling to release broadcast rights to them. We do hope that eventually rights will be allowed, so we can bring you that much-requested film.

SVEN'S MOVIE SCHEDULE
AUG 5	Shadow of the Cat
AUG 12	The Black Scorpion
AUG 19	Konga
AUG 26	War of the Colossal Beast

Great Ideas

Have an idea for an article for the SFC newsletter? Want to promote our ship? Or your/our fandom? The only thing holding you back is that you don't think you can do it? Well, if you'd like to share an idea with me, I'm more than happy to write something up, edit with you, and include you with a byline. This is a way for us to promote our great ship to the rest SFC of all the awesome things we do and our love of the Trek franchise.
