Svengoolie

Yes, all month long, you are in for Sven double-features every Saturday night! We kick them off with what has become a big favorite of many viewers since we ran it earlier this year: Killer Klowns from Outer Space — and follow it up with Forrest Tucker trapped on a mountain, facing deadly ocular aliens in The Crawling Eye! The next week, it's what may be our most requested movie, and almost required viewing this time of year — Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein — the notable comeback for Bela Lugosi as Dracula and Lon Chaney Jr. as Larry Talbot, the Wolf Man. That's followed by the 1986 version of a tale of alien invaders: and a young boy who can't convince anyone except Karen Black that the threat is real: Invaders from Mars.

We will follow those movies that night with an encore of the 2022 special honoring my career, with surprise guests and the celebration of "Svengoolie Day" in Berwyn: Svengoolie Uncrypted! Then, the following week, we present a feature that viewers have been asking for — it's the original TV movie that started the story of Carl Kolchak — with his own problem of getting authorities to believe there is a vampire in Las Vegas. Darren McGavin stars in The Night Stalker! The second half of this double-feature is also where a story started — the original appearance of Godzilla, King of the Monsters! (yes, with — ahem — Raymond Burr!) Our final Saturday of October has the perfect follow-up to Night Stalker — it's the second Kolchak adventure, that lead to the TV series, with our favorite reporter again battling to uncover the truth about an undying killer — The Night Strangler — and, as a special treat, an encore of the terrifying Karen Black chiller: Trilogy of Terror!
