Starfleet Command

As we are entering the final quarter of 2024, I want to update the membership on current happenings and upcoming events.

First, I want to remind members to please submit suggestions for a worthy charitable organization for Starfleet Command to donate to. Submissions must be sent to ADM Tim Shell by October 1st (his e-mail can be found on the Fleet website). The charitable organization that will receive our donation will be chosen via random drawing at Starbase Indy Speaking of Starbase Indy, Starfleet Command will celebrate our 50 Year Anniversary at Starbase Indy, which takes place on Thanksgiving weekend. I know that the Anniversary Committee has been working hard and SFC will have a have a number of things going on at the convention, including a separate panel room with programming, a recruitment table to advertise our organization, and of course, our Annual Fleet Meeting. The meeting will be in the Main Programming Room on Saturday, November 30th from 10:00 am to 12:00 noon. At the Annual Fleet Meeting, along with being updated on the happenings throughout our organization, the Fleet Awards will be presented to members and units for their contributions to and activity in Starfleet Command.

Believe and you will Stand

Isaiah 7:9 in the KJV reads, "If you will not believe surely, you shall not be established." The NASB reads "If you will not believe, you surely shall not last." But the NIV hints at something special going on in Hebrew. It reads "If you do not stand firm in your faith, you will not stand at all." If you read the Hebrew, you find a play on words: "Lo taaminu ki lo teamenu" or "If you will not believe, you will not be established." You see, in Hebrew there's no difference between trusting and being strong in God. The truth is, your walk is only as sure as your faith. Your spirituality is only as steadfast as your belief. Your life is only as strong as your conviction. You don't become strong by trying to be strong, you become strong by strongly believing. So choose to trust God with all your heart, because if you don't stand firm in your faith, you will not stand at all. Stand firm in your faith and you will stand strong in all.

Svengoolie

No doubt you noticed the "House of Svengoolie" listings for a couple of our second features — its films being hosted by our Sven Squad: Gwengoolie, IMP, and Nostalgiaferatoo! This is made even more special by the fact that they are presenting two films that came from the genius of "Muppets" creator Jim Henson. We'll tell you more — but let's go through our complete schedule; starting off with a Universal classic Son of Frankenstein — the third film in the "Frankenstein" series, and the last to feature Boris Karloff as the Monster. It also brought us our first look at the deranged hunchbacked blacksmith Igor, played by Bela Lugosi. Basil Rathbone is heir to the Frankenstein legacy, and returns home to claim it — only to be less than welcomed by the villagers who suffered through the Monster's reign of terror. Things only get worse when it is revealed that the Monster still lives! We follow that with Monster That Challenged the World — a 1950s chiller in which giant prehistoric mollusks escape from a crevasse created by an undersea earthquake!

The next week has our annual showing of one of our most requested movies — the hilarious haunted house epic starring Don Knotts — The Ghost and Mr. Chicken! Stay tuned after that for one of my personal favorites — Fiend Without a Face — in which invisible killer brains, powered by atomic energy, cause a rampage of death — and are even more incredible when they become visible! Their stop-motion animation form remains as a favorite of mine! Week three of our October schedule has another favorite from the 50s — the Vincent Price horror classic that was originally presented in 3-D — House of Wax (we actually hoped to show it in 3-D but — too many complications)!

Then, we premiere the “House of Svengoolie” — with our three Sven Squad friends given the chance to do their own thing, presenting Labyrinth — a fantasy film directed by the great Jim Henson, written by Monty Python’s Terry Jones, and executive produced by George Lucas! Starring Jennifer Connelly and David Bowie — and featuring many Henson puppet characters — is the story of a young woman entering a strange labyrinth to rescue her baby brother from the Goblin King. The final Saturday of October holds two tricky treats for you — first, we have finally gotten the sought-after original version of Invaders from Mars! This 1953 sci-fi classic, the story of a young boy who sees a flying saucer and subsequently finds his parents and others around him under the control of alien forces — with a tremendous conclusion as David tries to escape the bizarre Martian creatures! Then, as the last part of our double features, it’s another “House of Svengoolie” — with another Jim Henson film! The Sven Squad brings us Dark Crystal — another fantasy film directed by Henson and “Muppets” partner Frank Oz in which two elf-like beings must try to restore order to their world by restoring a powerful broken crystal. Plenty of fantastic creatures abound — and bring a fantastic ending to this year’s month of double features!
