Starfleet Academy announcement: 30th Anniversary of Star Trek: The Next Generation - 28 September 1987

Though the ST:TNG series premier episode "Encounter at Farpoint Pt 1 & 2" is at times "cringe worthy" 😞, the Starfleet Academy School of General Knowledge has developed a new 20-item exam covering this pilot. We're offering it as the first of (hopefully) many in the STEPs Course (Star Trek Episode Probe) which we hope will ensure that the minutiae in this series is seen and loved for a long time to come. Potential guest developers are encouraged to take this exam and, if interested, contact the Academy on how to produce one of these STEPs for our curriculum.
